

Partnership Agreement Drafting Service from the BMA exclusively for general medical practices

The BMA Partnership Agreement Drafting Service is designed solely to meet the business needs of general medical practices throughout the UK. The Partnership Agreement is a formal legal document designed to govern all aspects of inter-partner relations. The service is provided by Neal Hooper, a BMA lawyer, offering high-quality legal advice and drafting.

How to take advantage of the service

Call 020 7383 6128 or email info.pds@bma.org.uk

Alternatively please contact us via askBMA 0870 60 60 828

Purchase the service for a discounted price of £1,500 plus VAT

You can also take advantage of a fee of just £25 per annum plus VAT for us to hold and store a final signed version of the Agreement on behalf of your practice.

Areas covered in the Agreement include:

- formation of the partnership
- partnership finances
- provisions surrounding leave, absence and suspension
- details of income and expenses
- profit sharing clauses
- holding of and rights regarding premises
- partnership management and decision making
- termination

We will advise on the drafting and establishment of a Partnership Agreement for your practice to clarify and set down terms of working between participating partners. Partnership Agreements will bring each practice up to date with the law, reduce both financial and non-financial risk and provide a detailed framework on which the ongoing management and administration of the partnership can be based.
